The video below explains how we view safety culture, and emphasizes that if we can optimize the situation (e.g. work methods, management systems, communications, etc) we can optimize people's safety behavior.

Let us know how we can help you improve your safety culture